Ben Alexander, a Jones Foster board member, is vice chair of the Real Estate practice group and head of the firm's Palm Beach office. A Florida Bar Board Certified Real Estate specialist, Ben performs sophisticated real estate transactions for local and national developers, equity investors, business entities, entrepreneurs, financial institutions, and high-end residential purchasers and sellers.

As a result of his extensive experience in the Real Estate industry and community, Ben has cultivated long-lasting relationships that he leverages to further his clients' business interests. He is uniquely positioned to handle a broad range of matters, including advising on traditional real estate transactions, negotiating complex real estate development deals, and facilitating partnerships between equity funds and developers.

Ben is actively involved in community and industry organizations and currently serves as Vice President of the Board of Trustees for Palm Beach Day Academy. He previously served as President of the Royal Poinciana Chapel, Treasurer of The Preservation Foundation of Palm Beach, a Board Member for the Chamber of Commerce of the Palm Beaches, and a member of the University of Florida Real Estate Advisory Board.

Ben is consistently selected by his peers for inclusion in Best Lawyers in America and Palm Beach Illustrated's "Top Lawyers", and he holds an AV Preeminent® Rating from Martindale-Hubbell, the highest peer rating based upon legal ability and ethical standards. Ben graduated with high honors from the University of Florida Levin College of Law where he was named to the Order of the Coif.
