Ben Alexander is a Board Certified specialist in Real Estate and performs sophisticated real estate transactions for local and national developers, equity investors, business entities, entrepreneurs, financial institutions, and high-end residential purchasers and sellers.

As a result of his extensive experience in the Real Estate industry and community, Ben has cultivated long-lasting relationships that he leverages to further his clients' business interests. He is uniquely positioned to handle a broad range of matters, including advising on traditional real estate transactions, negotiating complex real estate development deals, and facilitating partnerships between equity funds and developers.

Ben is actively involved in community and industry organizations, currently serving as Vice President of the Board of Trustees for Palm Beach Day Academy and Treasurer of The Preservation Foundation of Palm Beach. He previously served as President of the Royal Poinciana Chapel, on the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce of the Palm Beaches, and as a member of the University of Florida Real Estate Advisory Board.

Ben is consistently selected by his peers for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America. He graduated with high honors from the University of Florida Levin College of Law where he was named to the Order of the Coif.
