Brett Lashley is a member of Jones Foster's Litigation & Dispute Resolution team. He focuses his practice in the areas of complex civil litigation and general commercial litigation with an emphasis on employment and real estate disputes. Brett represents individuals and businesses in matters involving the misappropriation of trade secrets, confidentiality agreements, the enforcement of non-compete agreements, as well as commercial and residential landlord-tenant disputes.

Brett earned his Juris Doctor degree from the University of Florida Levin College of Law where he was the Vice-Chair of Intermural Competitions for The Florida Moot Court Team and was awarded Best Brief in the Appellate Lawyers Association competition in Chicago. He also held the position of Vice President of the Entertainment and Sports Law Society, was a member of the Journal of Technology Law and Policy, and provided pro bono legal services to Veterans as a member of the Veterans and Service Members Legal Clinic.

While at the University of Florida, Brett gained valuable experience as a teaching assistant for Legal Writing and Appellate Advocacy, as a judicial intern for the Honorable Mark W. Klingensmith, Fourth District Court of Appeal, West Palm Beach, and as a Summer Associate at Jones Foster.
