Garrett Tice is a member of Jones Foster's Private Wealth, Wills, Trusts & Estates and Corporate & Tax teams, where he focuses his practice on estate planning, tax planning, and corporate law. He helps individuals, families, and businesses navigate tax considerations to develop efficient strategies that support their wealth preservation and business goals.

Garrett received his Juris Doctor from the University of Kentucky J. David Rosenberg College of Law, where he was a member of the Moot Court Board and Tax Law Society. During law school, Garrett gained hands-on legal experience as a judicial extern to the Honorable Tiffany Yahr of the Fayette Circuit Court in Kentucky, researching property and family law issues and preparing legal memoranda. He also worked as a law clerk in the Office of the Kentucky Attorney General, assisting with state investigations and litigation.

Garrett went on to earn a Master of Laws (LL.M.) in Taxation from the Graduate Tax Program at the University of Florida Levin College of Law. He also holds an MBA from the University of Kentucky Gatton College of Business and Economics.
