John Campo is a member of Jones Foster’s Real Estate team and represents businesses, including development and investment firms, and high-net-worth individuals in complex real estate transactions. John assists buyers and sellers of real property at all stages of a purchase and sale transaction, including the negotiation of the purchase and sale agreement, due diligence review, title and survey review, and the preparation of closing documents and other ancillary agreements such as easements and restrictive covenants. John also represents borrowers obtaining purchase money or construction financing in loan transactions. Finally, John represents both landlords and tenants in commercial leasing projects.

John is a member of the Palm Beach County Bar Association’s Young Lawyers Section and a graduate of the Chamber of Commerce of the Palm Beaches’ Leadership West Palm Beach program. He is an active member of the Literacy Coalition of Palm Beach County where he serves as a member of its Literacy Links Golf Committee. In addition, John has been consistently recognized in Palm Beach Illustrated’s “Top Lawyers” list for real estate law.

John earned his Juris Doctor from Vanderbilt University Law School where he served as managing editor of the Vanderbilt Journal of Entertainment and Technology Law. Before attending law school, John gained valuable experience working as a Real Estate Specialist for a Los Angeles-based AmLaw 100 firm, and during his legal studies John worked as a Summer Associate at Jones Foster.
