Krissy McDermand (formerly Krissy Hosman) is a member of Jones Foster's Real Estate team who represents commercial real estate developers, investors, and property owners in a wide range of transactions, including acquisitions and dispositions. She guides clients through each phase of the deal cycle, from the negotiation of letters of intent, purchase and sale agreements, and due diligence review to the acquisition, mortgage financing, and sale of real property.

Krissy assists buyers and sellers in the negotiation and preparation of purchase and sale agreements, land conveyance instruments, easements, organizational documents for special purpose entities, authorizing resolutions, title affidavits, and other transactional documents. She also brings prior experience conducting and analyzing comprehensive title and survey reviews, working closely with title companies, surveyors, lenders, and other transaction parties to resolve issues and help clients achieve efficient, timely closings.

Krissy earned her Juris Doctor degree, cum laude, and a Certificate in Law, Technology and Entrepreneurship from Loyola University New Orleans College of Law, where she was the recipient of the Loyola Law Dean's Scholarship and Loyola LaNasa Provident Law Scholarship. During her law school studies, Krissy worked with New Orleans start-up companies on their legal needs through the Loyola Transactional Law Clinic, served as a compliance associate for J.P. Morgan Chase, and clerked for a Sarasota law firm. She was also a member of the Phi Delta Phi International Legal Honor Society and the Golden Key International Honor Society.
