Natalie Nash (formerly Rickards) is a member of Jones Foster's Complex Litigation & Dispute Resolution team who represents individuals and businesses in commercial litigation matters. In her practice, she draws on her experience as a judicial law clerk to former Chief U.S. Magistrate Judge William D. Matthewman of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida.

Natalie is active in several legal organizations, including the Federal Bar Association Palm Beach County Chapter, for which she serves as Civics Liaison for the Civil Discourse and Difficult Decisions (CD3) program, and the Florida Association for Women Lawyers Palm Beach County Chapter, where she coordinates grants and awards initiatives.

Natalie graduated magna cum laude with her Juris Doctor degree from the University of Florida Levin College of Law. While in law school, she served as Executive Research Editor of UF's Journal of Law and Public Policy, as a mentor in the Gator Law Mentorship Program, and was the recipient of a CALI Book Award in Criminal Procedure - Adversary Systems. Natalie gained valuable legal experience as a judicial intern for U.S. Magistrate Judge Bruce E. Reinhart of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida, a legal intern at the U.S. Attorney's Office in Bangor, Maine, and a summer associate at Jones Foster.
