Peter Holton focuses his practice on representing local and national real estate investors in every stage of the investment cycle, including acquisitions, dispositions, leasing activities, joint venture agreements, and the structuring of ownerships groups. Peter also has extensive experience advising lenders in real estate transactions, secured loans, loan workouts, bankruptcy, asset sales, and restructurings. Additionally, he serves as trusted counsel to property owners associations and condominium associations.

Peter's long-standing relationships with his clients are a direct result of his tailored approach to each transaction. He serves as a partner to his clients, understanding the complexities of their business and creating practical legal solutions to help further their goals.
