Rachel Sears is a member of both the Corporate & Tax and Private Wealth, Trusts & Estates practice groups. She focuses her practice on transactional corporate law, probate and trust administration, and estate planning.

Rachel earned her Juris Doctor degree and graduated cum laude from Nova Southeastern University Shepard Broad College of Law, where she served as the Executive Editor for the Nova Law Review. She was selected to publish her Note in the Nova Law Review Volume 45 General Book and was awarded numerous Themis Awards as a Junior Associate in recognition of her editorial mastery and attention to detail.

While at Nova Southeastern University, she was a pupil of the Craig S. Barnard American Inn of Court; the Director of Operations for the Real Property, Probate and Trust Law Society; and an active member of the Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity. Rachel gained valuable experience as a judicial intern for both U.S. Circuit Judges David A. Haimes and Keathan B. Frink at the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit of Florida, as a Research Assistant for a law professor, and as a Summer Associate and Law Clerk at Jones Foster.
