Rob Wilkins, Litigation & Dispute Resolution Practice Group Leader, has a preeminent commercial litigation practice with an emphasis on eDiscovery, Information Governance, Data Privacy, and Cybersecurity. With over 35 years' experience as a trial lawyer, Rob is one of 88 attorneys in the state of Florida with dual board certification in civil trial and business litigation. Rob counsels clients in litigation matters related to business disputes, employment, non-compete and trade secrets, civil RICO, securities, commercial real estate, landlord/tenant, and shareholder partnership disputes.

Rob is active within various industry and bar associations. Currently, he is a member of the ABA Litigation Section's committees on Commercial and Business Litigation, Privacy and Data Security, Ethics and Professionalism, Pre-Trial Practice and Discovery, Email and Social Media, and Science and Technology Law - Internet of Things Committee. Rob also serves on the Florida Bar's Committee on Technology and is currently a member of the association's Business Litigation committee. Additionally, Rob previously served as a Chair of the Palm Beach County Bar's Technology Law committee and served on the Florida Bar Board of Legal Specialization and Education and The Florida Bar Business Litigation Certification Committee. He is a member of The Sedona Conference Working Group 1, Electronic Document Retention and Production, and Working Group 11, Data Security and Privacy Liability.

Rob is consistently recognized by peer and industry publications, including Best Lawyers in America and Super Lawyers. He holds an AV Preeminent Rating from Martindale-Hubbell, awarded to only those lawyers with the highest ethical standards and legal ability.
